Matthew Glesne

City Planner at City of Los Angeles

WHAT IS ON THE HORIZON FOR THE CITY OF LOS ANGELES-WHERE ARE WE GOING?

How is the city planning for L.A.'s future? What are the plans for future housing and additional commercial development? What impact is there on development along the transit lines of the subway system? What is TOD (Transit District Development)? What is bonus density all about? Are linkage fees hampering future development of affordable housing? What do we as brokers need to know when advising our clients when they are looking to buy or sell property? Come hear one of the top LA City officials dealing with the future planning of Los Angeles.
