ARTICLE V – MEMBERSHIP, QUALIFICATION, APPLICATION AND ACCEPTANCE

Section 6. Membership Application.

(a) Each applicant for membership shall submit an application in such manner and form as may be prescribed by the A.O.R. Board of Directors (hereinafter “Board of Directors”) and give his or her consent that the Board of Directors, through the A.O.R. Membership Committee or otherwise, may obtain information about the applicant from any member, other persons or Associations and that any information furnished to the Board of Directors by any member, person or Association shall not form the basis of any action for slander, libel or defamation of character. The Board of Directors, through its Membership Committee or otherwise, may consider the following in determining an applicant’s qualifications for membership: (1) all final findings of N.A.R. Code of Ethics violations and violations of other membership duties in any other Association within the past three (3) years; (2) pending ethics complaints or hearings; (3) unsatisfied discipline pending; (4) pending arbitration requests or hearings; (5) unpaid arbitration awards or unpaid financial obligations to any other Association or Association Multiple Listing Service (“MLS”).

(b) Applicants for membership shall be familiar with and agree to abide by the Bylaws and Rules and Regulations for the A.O.R., the Bylaws of C.A.R. and the N.A.R. Constitution, Bylaws and Code of Ethics, to the extent they are applicable, and pass such reasonable and nondiscriminatory written examination thereon as may be required by the A.O.R. Applicants must also attend an orientation program as may be required by the Board of Directors, or otherwise.

(c) Applicants who are sole proprietors, general partners, corporate officers, or branch office managers (Article V, Section 2) of a real estate firm shall certify: (1) they have no record of official sanctions rendered by the courts or other lawful authorities within the past three years for violations of (i) civil rights laws (ii) real estate license laws; or (iii) other laws prohibiting unprofessional conduct; and (2) that they have not been suspended or expelled from an Association the past three years for violations of the N.A.R. Code of Ethics.

(d) Applicants who are sole proprietors, general partners, corporate officers, or branch office managers (Article V, Section 2) of a real estate firm must disclose: (1) whether they or their firms are subject to any pending bankruptcy proceedings; and (2) whether they or their firms have been adjudged bankrupt within the past three (3) years. If the applicant is party to pending bankruptcy or insolvency proceedings or has been adjudged bankrupt with the past three (3) years, the applicant may be required to pay cash in advance for A.O.R. and MLS fees for up to one year from the date that membership is approved or from the date that the applicant is discharged from bankruptcy, whichever is later. If the Board of Directors determines that such prepayments will not protect the interests of the A.O.R. or its members, such applications may be rejected.

ARTICLE V – MEMBERSHIP, QUALIFICATION, APPLICATION AND ACCEPTANCE

Section 7. Prior Membership Records. The A.O.R. may consider information received from other Associations in determining whether an applicant satisfies the A.O.R.'s membership requirements. The A.O.R. may request from any Association where the applicant held prior membership, minimum "core" information including:

- (a) All final findings of Code of Ethics violations of other membership duties within the past three (3) years;
- (b) Pending complaints alleging violations of the Code of Ethics or alleging violations of other membership duties;
- (c) Incomplete or (pending) disciplinary measures;
- (d) Pending arbitration requests (or hearings); and
- (e) Unpaid arbitration awards or unpaid financial obligations to the Association or its MLS.

NOTE: Article IV, Section 2, of the NAR Bylaws prohibits a Member A.O.R. from knowingly granting REALTOR® membership to any applicant who has an unfulfilled sanction pending which was imposed by another Association for violation of the Code of Ethics.

Section 8. Application Review and Acceptance. The procedure for acceptance to membership shall be as follows:

- (a) The Membership Committee shall determine whether applicant is applying for the appropriate class of membership. If the AOR does not have a standing Membership Committee, the AOR's Executive Officer/staff may act in this capacity. The Membership Committee may request "core" information as defined in Article V, Section 7, from any Association of which the applicant was previously a member. The Membership Committee shall thereafter make a written report of its findings. The Membership Committee shall conduct all proceedings with strict attention to the principles of due process and compliance with the Bylaws.
- (b) Within twenty (20) days, the Membership Committee shall report its recommendation to the applicant and Board of Directors in writing. If the recommendation is to reject the application, the reasons shall be specifically stated. If any member of the Membership Committee submits a dissenting recommendation, it shall also be reported to the applicant and Board of Directors. The applicant shall also be notified of his or her right to appear before the Membership Committee, to present evidence, both written and oral, and to be represented by counsel.

ARTICLE V – MEMBERSHIP, QUALIFICATION, APPLICATION AND ACCEPTANCE

(c) The Board of Directors shall review the qualifications of the applicant and the recommendations of the Membership Committee and then vote on the applicant's eligibility for membership. The Board of Directors may also have counsel present. If the applicant receives a majority vote of the Board of Directors, he or she shall be declared accepted as a member and shall be advised by written notice. An application for Institute Affiliate Membership shall be acted upon by the Board of Directors within forty-five (45) days from the date of application for membership.

(d) If the Board of Directors determines that the application should be rejected, it shall record its reasons. If the Board of Directors believes that denial of membership to the applicant may become the basis of litigation and a claim of damage by the applicant, it may specify that denial shall become effective upon entry in a suit by the A.O.R. for a declaratory judgment by a court of competent jurisdiction of a final judgment declaring that the rejection violates no rights of the applicant.

(e) The Board of Directors, through its Membership Committee or otherwise, may grant "provisional" membership to an applicant in instances where the applicant for membership has unsatisfied discipline pending in another Association, (except for violations of the Code of Ethics), provided all other qualifications for membership have been satisfied. Provisional members shall be considered REALTORS® and shall be subject to all of the same privileges and obligations of REALTOR® membership. The Board of Directors may reconsider the membership status of provisional members when all unsatisfied discipline has been resolved or if such matters are not resolved within six (6) months from the date that provisional membership is approved. At the time of reconsideration, if the Board of Directors determines that the individual has not satisfactorily resolved the unsatisfied discipline, at the discretion of the Board of Directors, membership may be terminated.

Section 9. New Member Code of Ethics Orientation. Applicants for REALTOR® membership and provisional REALTOR® members (where applicable) shall complete an orientation program on the Code of Ethics, meeting the minimum criteria established by N.A.R. for new member ethics training. This requirement does not apply to applicants for REALTOR® membership or provisional members who have completed comparable orientation in another Association, provided that REALTOR® membership has been continuous, or that any break in membership is for one year or less. Failure to satisfy this requirement within 30 days of the date of application (or, alternatively, the date that provisional membership was granted), will result in denial of the membership application or termination of provisional membership.

Section 10. Continuing Member Code of Ethics Training. Every two year period, starting with the period from January 1, 2017 through December 31, 2018, and for successive two year periods thereafter, each REALTOR® member of the A.O.R. shall be required to complete a course on the Code of Ethics, meeting the minimum criteria established by N.A.R. for biennial ethics training. This requirement will be satisfied upon presentation of documentation that the member has completed such course of instruction conducted by this or another Association, C.A.R., N.A.R. or any other recognized educational institution. REALTOR® members who have completed training as a requirement of membership in another Association and REALTOR® members who have completed the New Member Code of Ethics Orientation during any two year cycle shall not be required to complete additional ethics training until a new two year period commences.

Failure to satisfy this requirement shall be considered a violation of a membership duty and will result in suspension of membership for the first two months (January and February) of the year following the end of any two year cycle or until the requirement is met, whichever occurs sooner. On March 1 of that year, the membership of a member who is still suspended as of that date for failure to complete the training requirement will be automatically terminated.

Section 11. Status Changes.

(a) REALTORS® who change the conditions under which they hold membership shall be required to provide written notification to the A.O.R. within thirty (30) days. A non-principal REALTOR® who becomes a principal in the firm with which he or she has been licensed or, becomes a principal in a new firm which will be comprised of REALTOR® principals, may be required to satisfy any previously unsatisfied membership requirements applicable to principal REALTOR® members. During the period of transition from one status of membership to another, such members shall be subject to all of the privileges and obligations of a principal REALTOR® member. The Board of Directors, at its discretion, may waive any qualification which the member has already fulfilled in accordance with the Bylaws. If the REALTOR® does not satisfy the requirements established in the Bylaws for the category of membership to which they have transferred within thirty (30) days of the date they advised the A.O.R. of their change in status, their application for change of status will terminate automatically unless otherwise so directed by the Board of Directors.

(b) If the licensed status of any member is terminated, his or her membership in the A.O.R. shall terminate automatically. If any member ceases to meet any other ongoing qualification of membership, his or her membership may be terminated by the Board of Directors. Each member shall have the affirmative duty to notify the A.O.R. of any changes in their licensee status.

(c) Any application fee related to a change in membership status shall be reduced by an amount equal to any application fee previously paid by the applicant. Dues shall be prorated from the first day of the quarter in which the member is notified of acceptance by the Board of Directors of his or her change in status and shall be based on the new membership status for the remainder of the year.

ARTICLE V – MEMBERSHIP, QUALIFICATION, APPLICATION AND ACCEPTANCE

Section 12. Resignation. Resignations of members shall become effective when received in writing by the Board of Directors, provided, however, that if any member submitting the resignation is indebted to the A.O.R. for dues, fees, fines or other assessments of the A.O.R. or any of its services, departments, divisions or subsidiaries, the A.O.R. may condition the right of the resigning member to reapply for membership upon payment in full of all such monies owed.

ARTICLE VI - PRIVILEGES AND OBLIGATIONS OF MEMBERS

Section 1. Member Compliance with Bylaws, Policies, Rules and Regulations. It shall be the duty of every member of the A.O.R. to abide by the Bylaws, Policies and Rules and Regulations of the A.O.R. Any member of the A.O.R. may be reprimanded, fined, placed on probation, suspended, or expelled by the Board of Directors for a violation of the Bylaws or the Rules and Regulations of the A.O.R. If a hearing is required it shall be held in accordance with the California Code of Ethics and Arbitration Manual and its Implementation Guidelines together with the SRAR Professional Standards Rules Addendum.

Although only REALTOR® members are subject to the Code of Ethics and its enforcement by the A.O.R., all members are encouraged to abide by the principles established in the Code of Ethics and conduct their business and professional practices accordingly. Further, any non-REALTOR® member may, upon recommendation of a hearing panel of the Professional Standards Committee, be subject to discipline as described above, for any conduct, which in the opinion of the Board of Directors, reflects adversely on the real estate industry or the terms REALTOR® or REALTORS® and for conduct that is inconsistent with or adverse to the objectives and purposes of this A.O.R., C.A.R. or N.A.R.

Section 2. Member Discipline.

(a) Any member of the A.O.R. may be reprimanded, placed on probation, suspended or expelled for sexual harassment of an Association or MLS employee after a hearing in accordance with the established procedures of the A.O.R. The decision of the appropriate disciplinary action to be taken shall be made by the investigatory team comprised of the President, President-Elect and one member of the Board of Directors selected by the highest ranking officer not named in the complaint, upon consultation with counsel for the A.O.R. If the complaint names the President or President-Elect, they may not participate in the proceedings and shall be replaced by the Immediate Past President or, alternatively, by another member of the Board of Directors selected by the highest ranking officer not named in the complaint.

(b) Any REALTOR® member of the A.O.R. may be disciplined by the Board of Directors for violations of the Code of Ethics or other duties of membership after a hearing as described in the California Code of Ethics and Arbitration Manual and its Implementation Guidelines together with the SRAR Professional Standards Rules Addendum provided that the discipline imposed is consistent with N.A.R. policy as set forth in the California Code of Ethics and Arbitration Manual and its implementation Guidelines together with the SRAR Professional Standards Rules Addendum.

ARTICLE VI – PRIVILEGES AND OBLIGATIONS OF MEMBERS

Section 3. Resignation with Pending Arbitration or Disciplinary Hearing. If a member resigns from the A.O.R. or otherwise causes membership to terminate with a disciplinary complaint pending, the complaint shall be processed until the decision of the A.O.R. with respect to disposition of the complaint is final by this A.O.R. (if respondent does not hold membership in any other Association) or by any other Association in which the respondent continues to hold membership. If an ethics respondent resigns or otherwise causes membership in all Associations to terminate before an ethics complaint is filed alleging unethical conduct occurred while the respondent was a REALTOR®, the complaint, once filed, shall be processed until the decision of the Association with respect to disposition of the complaint is final. In any instance where an ethics hearing is held subsequent to an ethic respondent's resignation or membership termination, any discipline ratified by the Board of Directors shall be held in abeyance until such time as the respondent rejoins an Association of REALTORS®.

If a member resigns or otherwise causes membership to terminate, the duty to submit to arbitration continues in effect even after membership lapses or is terminated provided that the dispute arose while the former member was a member.

Section 4. Voting Rights and Eligibility for Elective Office. Only REALTOR® members, whether primary or secondary, in good standing whose financial obligations to the A.O.R. are paid in full, shall be entitled to vote and to hold elective office in the A.O.R. Proxy voting is not allowed.

Section 5. Privileges and Duties of REALTOR® Members.

(a) It shall be the duty and responsibility of every REALTOR® member of this A.O.R. to abide by the Constitution and Bylaws of C.A.R., the Constitution and Bylaws of N.A.R. and to abide by the Code of Ethics, as set forth in Article VI, Section 1 of these Bylaws.

(b) REALTOR® members have the primary responsibility to safeguard and promote the standards, interests and welfare of the A.O.R. and the real estate profession.

(c) REALTOR® members may use the terms REALTOR® and REALTORS® subject to the provisions of Article VIII.

(d) If a REALTOR® member who is a sole proprietor, principal in a firm, partner in a partnership, officer of a corporation, or branch office manager is suspended or expelled, his or her firm, partnership or corporation shall not use the terms REALTOR® or REALTORS® in connection with its business during the period of suspension or expulsion and the membership of all other principals, partners or corporate officers shall suspend or terminate during the period of suspension or expulsion, unless: (1) the disciplined member severs his or her connection with the firm, partnership or corporation; or (2) the disciplined member relinquishes management control of the firm.

The membership of REALTORS® who are employed or affiliated as independent contractors with the disciplined member shall suspend or terminate during the period of suspension or expulsion unless: (1) the disciplined member severs his or her connection with the firm, partnership or corporation; (2) the disciplined member relinquishes management control of the firm; or (3) the non-principal REALTOR® member elects to sever his or her connection with the disciplined member and affiliates with another REALTOR® member in good standing in the association. If a REALTOR® member other than a sole proprietor in a firm, partner in a partnership, officer of a corporation or branch office manager is suspended or expelled, the use of the terms REALTOR® or REALTORS® by the firm, partnership or corporation shall not be affected.

Removal of an individual from any form or degree of management control must be certified to the A.O.R. by the disciplined member and by the individual who is assuming management control. The signatures on such certification must be notarized.

The foregoing is not intended to preclude a suspended or expelled member from functioning as an employee or independent contractor, provided no management control is exercised.

(e) In any action taken against a principal REALTOR® member for suspension or expulsion, notice of such action shall be given to all REALTORS® employed by or affiliated as independent contractors with such REALTOR® member and they shall be advised that the provisions in this Article shall apply.

Section 6. Privileges and Duties of Institute Affiliate Members. Institute Affiliate members shall have the rights and privileges and be subject to the obligations prescribed by the Board of Directors consistent with the N.A.R. Constitution and Bylaws.

The certifying REALTOR® shall fill out all items required on said form, including the names of all real estate licensees associated with the REALTOR® Member, in offices located within the geographical jurisdictional boundaries of the Association.

REALTOR® Members failing to comply by that date shall become subject to suspension from Association services at a Show Cause Hearing. In the event Association services are suspended, said REALTOR® may have services restored by completing, executing and returning to the Association the licensee certification form on or before August 30 of said year. Failure to comply by that date shall subject REALTOR® Member to expulsion from the Association pending a Show Cause Hearing as per these Bylaws.

ARTICLE VII – PROFESSIONAL STANDARDS AND ARBITRATION

Section 1. Professional Standards and Arbitration. The responsibility of the A.O.R. and its members relating to the enforcement of the Code of Ethics, the disciplining of members, the arbitration of disputes, and the organization and procedures incident thereto shall be governed by the California Code of Ethics and Arbitration Manual and its Implementation Guidelines together with the SRAR Professional Standards Rules Addendum, as published and from time to time amended by C.A.R., which by this reference is made a part of these Bylaws.

Section 2. Member Compliance with N.A.R. and C.A.R. Constitution, Bylaws, Policies, Rules, Regulations and Code of Ethics. It shall be the duty and responsibility of every REALTOR® member of this A.O.R. to abide by the Constitution and Bylaws and the Rules and Regulations of this A.O.R., the Constitution and Bylaws of C.A.R., the Constitution and Bylaws of N.A.R. and the Code of Ethics, including the duty to arbitrate controversies arising out of real estate transactions as specified by Article 17 of the N.A.R. Code of Ethics and as further defined and in accordance with the procedures set forth in the California Code of Ethics and its Implementation Guidelines together with the SRAR Professional Standards Rules Addendum as published and from time to time amended by C.A.R. By becoming and remaining a member, every REALTOR® member agrees that he or she and the corporation or firm for which he or she acts as a partner, officer, principal, or branch office manager, will submit to arbitration through the A.O.R. all disputes with any other member or members of the public subject to the conditions set forth in the California Code of Ethics and Arbitration Manual and its Implementation Guidelines together with the SRAR Professional Standards Rules Addendum.

ARTICLE VIII - USE OF THE TERMS "REALTOR®" AND "REALTORS®"

Section 1. Use and Control of REALTOR® Membership Marks. Use of the terms REALTOR® and REALTORS® by members shall, at all times, be subject to the provisions of the Constitution and Bylaws of N.A.R. and to the Rules and Regulations prescribed by its Board of Directors. The A.O.R. shall have the authority to control, jointly and in full cooperation with N.A.R., use of the terms within its jurisdiction. Any misuse of the terms by members is a violation of a membership duty and may subject members to disciplinary action by the Board of Directors after a hearing as provided for in the California Code of Ethics and Arbitration Manual and its Implementation Guidelines together with the SRAR Professional Standards Rules Addendum.

Section 2. Jurisdictional Limits on Use of REALTOR® Membership Marks. REALTOR® members of the A.O.R. shall have the privilege of using the terms REALTOR® and REALTORS® in connection with their places of business within California, or a state contiguous thereto, so long as they remain REALTOR® members in good standing. ARTICLE VIII - USE OF THE TERMS "REALTOR®" AND "REALTORS®"

Section 3. Use of REALTOR® Membership Marks Dependent on Status of Firm Principals. A REALTOR® member who is a principal of a real estate firm, partnership or corporation may use the terms REALTOR® and REALTORS® only if all the principals of such firm, partnership, or corporation who are actively engaged in the real estate profession within California, or a state contiguous thereto, are REALTOR® members.

In the case of a REALTOR® member who is a principal of a real estate firm, partnership or corporation whose business activity is substantially all commercial, the right to use the term REALTOR® or REALTORS® shall be limited to office locations in which a principal, partner, corporate officer or branch office manager of the firm, partnership or corporation holds REALTOR® membership. If a firm, partnership or corporation operates additional places of business in which no principal, partner, corporate officer or branch office manager holds REALTOR® membership, the term REALTOR® or REALTORS® may not be used in any reference to those additional places of business.

Section 4. Institute Affiliate Members Ineligible to Use REALTOR® Membership Marks. Institute Affiliate members shall not use the terms REALTOR® or REALTORS® nor the imprint of the emblem seal of N.A.R.

ARTICLE IX – DUES AND ASSESSMENTS

Section 1. Application Fee. The Board of Directors may adopt a reasonable fee for membership in the A.O.R. The application fee for REALTOR® membership shall not exceed three (3) times the amount of the annual dues for REALTOR membership. The application fee shall be required to accompany each application for membership in the A.O.R. and shall become the property of the A.O.R. upon final approval of the application.

Section 2. Dues.

(a) The Board of Directors shall determine annually the amount of annual dues to be paid by each class of membership.

(b) The dues of each REALTOR® member shall be a base amount plus an amount multiplied by the number of real estate licensees and licensed or certified appraisers under California law to which he or she certified under Article VI, Section 8 and who: (1) are employed by or affiliated as independent contractors or who are otherwise directly or indirectly licensed or certified with such REALTOR® member; and (2) are not REALTOR® members of any Association within California or a state contiguous thereto or Institute Affiliate members of this A.O.R. In calculating the dues payable to the A.O.R. by a Designated REALTOR® member, non-member licensees as defined in (1) and (2) of this sub-paragraph shall not be included in the computation of dues if the Designated REALTOR® has paid dues based on non-member licensees to another Association within the state of California or a state contiguous thereto, provided the Designated REALTOR® notifies the A.O.R. in writing of the identity of the Association to which dues have been remitted.

ARTICLE IX – DUES AND ASSESSMENTS

A REALTOR® with a direct or indirect ownership interest in an entity engaged exclusively in soliciting and/or referring clients and customers to the REALTOR® for consideration on a substantially exclusive basis (“LFRO”) shall annually file with the association, on a form approved by the association, a list of the licensees affiliated with that entity and shall certify that all of the licensees affiliated with the entity are solely engaged in referring clients and customers and are not engaged in listing, selling, leasing, renting, managing, counseling, appraising or arranging financing for real property and are not a participant or subscriber in a Multiple Listing Service (“MLS”). The individuals disclosed on such form shall not be deemed to be licensed with the REALTOR® filing the form for purposes of this Article IX, Section 2 (b) and shall not be included in calculating the annual dues of the Designated REALTOR®.

A REALTOR® with a direct or indirect ownership interest in an entity engaged in the real estate business which provides services for which a Mortgage Loan Originators license endorsement (MLO) is required may annually file with the association, on a form approved by the association, a list of the MLO licensees and certify that the listed licensees (1) have a MLO license or endorsement, (2) are not engaged in real estate licensed activities except those for which an MLO is required, and (3) are not participants or subscribers in any Multiple Listing Service. The individuals disclosed on such forms shall not be deemed to be licensed with the REALTOR® filing the form for purposes of this Article IX, Section 2(b) and shall not be included in calculating the annual dues of the Designated REALTOR®. The exemption for any licensee included on the certification form for a LFRO shall automatically be revoked upon the individual being engaged in real estate licensed activities (listing, selling, leasing, renting, managing, counseling, appraising, or arranging financing for real property) , other than referrals, or being a participant or subscriber of any MLS, and dues for the current fiscal year shall be due and payable.

Membership dues shall be prorated for any licensee included on a certification form submitted to the association who during the same calendar year applies for REALTOR® or REALTOR®-ASSOCIATE® membership in the association. However, membership dues shall not be prorated if the licensee held REALTOR® or REALTOR-ASSOCIATE® membership during the preceding calendar year.

(c) The annual dues of REALTOR® members shall not include any allocation for C.A.R., if the member is a member of an Association of C.A.R. and that Association has paid C.A.R. dues for the member.

(d) The annual dues of REALTOR® members shall not include any allocation for N.A.R., if the member is a member of an Association of N.A.R. and that association had paid N.A.R. dues for the member.

(e) In the case of a Designated REALTOR® member in a firm, partnership, or corporation whose business activity is substantially all commercial, any assessments for non-member licensees shall be limited to licensees affiliated with the Designated

A former member who has had his or her membership terminated for nonpayment of dues, fees, fines or other assessments duly levied in accordance with the provisions of these Bylaws or the provisions of other Rules and Regulations of the A.O.R. or any of its services, departments, divisions or subsidiaries may apply for reinstatement in a manner prescribed for new applicants for membership, only after making payment in full of all accounts due as of the date of termination.

Section 4. Collection and Proration of Dues. The manner of collection and proration of dues shall be set by the Board of Directors as amended from time-to-time in the Membership Rules and/or appropriate committee formats.

Section 5. Finances. The Board of Directors shall have the authority and responsibility to administer the Association's finances in accordance with good business practice and allocate funds of the Association subject to the following limitations:

(a) Any capital expenditure not exceeding two and one-half percent (2.5%) of the current annual operating budget or $300,000, whichever is less, shall require a majority vote of the Board of Directors present at a regularly scheduled or specially called meeting. Any capital expenditure exceeding two and one-half percent (2.5%) of the current annual operating budget or $300,000, whichever is less, shall require a two-thirds vote of the Board of Directors present at a regularly scheduled or specially called meeting.

(b) Any capital expenditure, in excess of 10% of the current annual operating budget may not be made unless authorized by a majority vote of the association members and present at a duly held membership meeting (Article VI, Section 4 of these Bylaws). There shall be no sale of real property excepting with prior consent of the membership. However, nothing shall preclude the Board of Directors from making any expenditures necessary for the maintenance or replacement of equipment of a like type and/or value and/or making building repairs to insure the uninterrupted operation of the Association. Capital expenditure is an expenditure for permanent additions or improvements to property, as opposed to money spent for repairs, replacements, and/or operations. However, in determining whether or not an expenditure is to be submitted to the membership, the cost of implementation shall be included.

ARTICLE IX – DUES AND ASSESSMENTS

Section 6. Financial Report. The Chief Executive Officer shall select subject to approval of the Board of Directors, a certified public accounting firm to prepare a financial report for the fiscal year ending December 31. ARTICLE X – OFFICERS & DIRECTORS

(d) No candidate for Board of Directors may be nominated by the Nominating Committee who is related by blood or marriage to the first or second degree to any member of the Nominating Committee.

(e) Not less than 60 days nor more than 120 days prior to the Annual Election, the Nominating Committee's choice shall be published in REALTOR® REPORT.

(f) REALTOR® Members may be nominated for the Board of Directors by petition. In order to qualify for the ballot, a petition nominee must obtain the signatures of the number allowed under Calif. Corp. law based on the total membership count in good standing in their respective category as of April 1, on the petition form provided by the Association.

The petition shall be filed with the Chief Executive Officer not later than 12:00 noon, 30 days after the publishing of the Nominating Committee's choice. Petitions may contain the name of only one nominee. Petition nominees will appear on the ballot along with all other nominees in random order, drawn by lot. The ballot shall also contain a place for write-in nominees and be distributed by any method deemed appropriate by the Board of Directors, to all respective members at least fourteen days prior to Election Day.

(h) The individual nominated must agree that after election he or she will take any further educational course or other training prescribed by the Board of Directors for attendance by all Directors. Acceptance of the office of Director will constitute the agreement by the individual. If any director fails to satisfy these requirements after election, he or she shall not be eligible for further election to the Board of Directors until the requirements are met, and is subject to removal by a 2/3 vote of the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE X – OFFICERS & DIRECTORS

Past Presidents, nominated for the Board of Directors, shall appear on a separate ballot regardless of the number nominated. However, Past Presidents will not be deemed elected unless their individual vote tally would have been sufficient for election without regard to the separate ballot category.
- (g) Any tie votes will be broken in accordance with the methods determined by the Board of Directors, in their sole discretion. This decision shall be accomplished as soon as practicable but no later than 40 days following the election.
- (h) Ballots shall be overseen by an Election Committee appointed by the President and approved by the Board of Directors, who shall declare the elected directors upon conclusion of their ballot counting.

Further, the President-Elect shall become President, subject to election by the Directors, and based upon their determination of satisfactory performance by the President-Elect during the preceding year, and in the absence of any unforeseen events. Members of the Nominating Committee and Directors appointed by a Division are not eligible to run for office.

Section 6. Officers' Duties. The duties of the Officers shall be such as their title by general usage would indicate, and such as may be assigned to them respectively by the Board of Directors from time-to-time, and such as are required by law. The incoming President shall announce the standing committees and their chairman at the first regular meeting in January, or as soon thereafter as practicable.

ARTICLE X – OFFICERS & DIRECTORS

Section 7. Vacancies of Elected Officers.

(a) President: In the event of a vacancy in the office of President, the President-Elect shall fill the remainder of the term of office.

(b) President-Elect: A vacancy in the office of President-Elect shall be filled for the remainder of the term of office by a majority vote of the Board of Directors present at a regular meeting to be held no later than sixty (60) days from the date of the occurrence of the vacancy. This appointment shall be on an interim basis. The condition in Article X, Section 5, which states, "Further, the President-Elect shall become President subject to election by the Directors, and based upon their determination of satisfactory performance by the President-Elect during the preceding year, and in the absence of any unforeseen events", shall not apply to the interim appointee.

Section 8. Vacancies of Directors. Vacancies on the Board of Directors shall be filled for the remainder of the vacating Director's term by appointment by the Board of Directors.

Section 9. Chief Executive Officer. The Board of Directors shall appoint a Chief Executive officer who shall act as Secretary-Treasurer of the corporation. In the event of the Chief Executive Officer's inability to continue to serve, the Board of Directors shall appoint another Chief Executive Officer.

ARTICLE XI – MEETINGS

Section 1. Installation Meeting. The installation of Officers and Directors shall be held at an annual installation meeting each year, at a place and time designated by the Board of Directors.

Section 2. Other Meetings. Meetings of the members may be held at such other times as may be determined by the President or Board of Directors. All members qualified to vote shall be notified by mail of date and business for which meeting is called, no less than thirty (30) nor more than ninety (90) days prior to the date of the meeting. Any decision made at the meeting without such prior notice shall not be final until confirmed at the next membership meeting.

Section 3. Petitioning for a Meeting Call. The Board of Directors shall, within 20 days of receipt of a request by at least 5% of the voting members, make a call for a meeting to be held not less than 35 days nor more than 90 days after the receipt of the request. Voting members are those REALTORS® in good standing and qualified to vote, each of whom shall be entitled to inspect the membership list at reasonable times and on reasonable notice. The notice for the meeting shall set forth the date, time and place of the meeting and the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called.

Section 4. Proxy. Proxies shall not be permitted for membership meetings.

ARTICLE XI – MEETINGS

Section 5. Quorum.

(a) Ten percent of the REALTOR® Members of or 100 members qualified to vote (See Article VI, Section 4) whichever is the lesser, of the Association in good standing shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. The number necessary to establish a quorum shall be determined ten days prior to the date of the meeting.

(b) In the event a General Membership meeting is adjourned for lack of a quorum, another meeting shall be held within 90 days of the date of the adjourned meeting. At such second meeting the number in attendance at the time of the transaction of any business shall constitute a quorum.

Section 6. Voting By Ballot. Any action which may be taken by the members at a meeting, whether for the amendment of Bylaws or to transact other business, may be taken by ballot, at the discretion of the Board of Directors.

(a) A “ballot” is a vote which is submitted by the voting member in writing or by electronic mail. Whether an electronic mail ballot is permitted shall be within the discretion of the Board of Directors.

(b) Notices for action to be taken by ballot shall satisfy the same requirements as in the case of meetings called for amendment of Bylaws, or the transaction of other business. The notice shall advise members of the number required for a quorum, and the number required for adoption of any proposed action. The Board of Directors shall allow a reasonable period of time for the members to consider and send in ballots.

(c) The Board of Directors may not call for vote by ballot where a meeting has been called by Petition, pursuant to Article XI, Section 3, unless voting by ballot is permitted by language contained in the petition.

(d) A quorum for the purposes of a vote by ballot shall mean that the votes cast by ballot must be equal to or greater than the number of votes required for a quorum in meetings attended by voting members.

(e) A ballot, whether in writing or by electronic mail, once received by the Association, cannot be revoked by the member submitting the ballot.

Section 7. Board of Directors' Time and Attendance. The Board of Directors shall meet at regular periods. A Director who fails to attend three (3) meetings in a calendar year without being excused by the Presiding Officer with concurrence of the Directors may be removed by the Directors.

Section 8. Board of Directors Quorum. Majority of the total authorized members of the Board of Directors, at a regular or special meeting, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

Section 1. Appointments. The President shall appoint those committees necessary to achieve the goals of the Association subject to affirmation by the Board of Directors by a vote of a majority of Directors then in office.

Section 2. Duties. Committees shall have such duties and functions as may be assigned to them by the Board of Directors.

Section 3. Size and Term.

(a) Committees shall consist of such a number of members as the formats prescribe and shall be appointed by the President for specified terms or until their successors have been duly appointed and confirmed or until they are officially discharged.

(b) The Association's C.A.R. Nominating Committee shall consist of such a number of members as the C.A.R. Nominating Committee Format prescribes and shall be appointed by the incumbent C.A.R. Region 18 Chairman for specified terms or until their successors have been duly appointed and affirmed or until they are officially discharged.

Section 4. Actions. All actions of committees shall be subject to the approval of the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE XIII - TRUSTEESHIPS

Section 1. Trusteeships and Divisions as referred to herein shall mean semi-autonomous bodies delegated to manage significant Association functions requiring more continuous and independent control than can be provided by a Committee.

Section 2. Trusteeships and Divisions may be created, or terminated, from time-to-time by the Board of Directors, by a two-thirds vote of those present and voting.

Section 3. Management.

(a) Trustees shall be appointed by the President, subject to affirmation by the Board of Directors. Trustees may be removed by a two-thirds vote of the Directorate.

(b) A Division may have its own membership provided it is drawn from REALTORS®, whether from the Southland Regional Association or other Associations. The Association may also authorize a Division to have its own officers, Board of Directors and/or counsel, and may approve a separate dues structure for its members.

Section 4. The Trusteeships and Divisions shall propose such rules and procedures as are necessary to carry out their assigned goals and purposes, which rules and procedures shall be subject to approval or modification by the Association Board of Directors on a two-thirds vote of those present and voting.

ARTICLE XIV - MULTIPLE LISTING SERVICE

Section 1. Authority. The Association shall maintain for the use of its Members a Multiple Listing Service, which shall be subject to the Bylaws of the Association and such Rules and Regulations as may be hereinafter adopted.

Section 2. Purpose. The Association of REALTORS® Multiple Listing Service is a facility for the orderly correlation and dissemination of listing information among the Participants so that they may better serve their clients in selling the listed property, and that the listing broker has a legitimate interest in not having information so furnished used for any other purpose. In addition, it is a means by which the MLS Participant establishes legal relationships with other Participants by making a blanket unilateral contractual offer of compensation to other Participants.

Section 3. Participation. Any REALTOR® of this or any other Association or qualified real estate broker who is a principal, partner, corporate officer, or branch office manager acting on behalf of a principal, without further qualification, except as otherwise stipulated in these bylaws, shall be eligible to participate in the Multiple Listing Service upon agreeing in writing to conform to the rules and regulations thereof and to pay the costs incidental thereto. However, under no circumstances is any individual or firm, regardless of membership status, entitled to Multiple Listing Service “membership” or “participation” unless they hold a current, valid real estate broker’s license and offer or accept compensation to and from other Participants or are licensed or certified by an appropriate state regulatory agency to engage in the appraisal of real property. Use of information developed by or published by an Association Multiple Listing Service is strictly limited to the activities authorized under a Participant’s licensure(s) or certification and unauthorized uses are prohibited. Further, none of the foregoing is intended to convey “participation” or “membership” or any right of access to information developed by or published by an Association Multiple Listing Service where access to such information is prohibited by law.

NOTE: Mere possession of a broker’s license is not sufficient to qualify for MLS participation. Rather, the requirement that an individual or firm ‘offers or accepts cooperation and compensation’ means that the Participant actively endeavors during the operation of its real estate business to list real property of the type listed on the MLS and/or to accept offers of cooperation and compensation made by listing brokers or agents in the MLS. “Actively” means on a continual and on-going basis during the operation of the Participant’s real estate business. The “actively” requirement is not intended to preclude MLS participation by a Participant or potential Participant that operates a real estate business on a part time, seasonal, or similarly time limited basis or that has its business interrupted by periods of relative inactivity occasioned by market conditions. Similarly, the requirement is not intended to deny MLS participation to a Participant or potential Participant who has not achieved a minimum number of transactions despite good faith efforts. Nor is it intended to permit an MLS to deny participation based on the level of service provided by the Participant or potential Participant as long as the level of service satisfies state law. The key is that the Participant or potential Participant actively endeavors to make or accept offers of cooperation and compensation with respect to properties of the type that are listed on the MLS in which participation is sought. This requirement does not permit an MLS to deny participation to a Participant or potential Participant that operates a Virtual Office Website ("VOW") (including a VOW that the Participant uses to refer customers to other Participants) if the Participant or potential Participant actively endeavors to make or accept offers of cooperation and compensation. An MLS may evaluate whether a Participant or potential Participant "actively endeavors during the operation of its real estate business" to "offer or accept cooperation and compensation" only if the MLS has a reasonable basis to believe that the Participant or potential Participant is in fact not doing so. The membership requirement shall be applied on a nondiscriminatory manner to all Participants and potential Participants.

Section 4. Availability. Nothing in the Bylaws of the Association or the Rules and Regulations of the Multiple Listing Service shall be deemed to deny availability of the Multiple Listing service to any licensed real estate broker who is entitled to it under the law of the State of California, regardless of whether or not the licensee is a Member of the Association.

ARTICLE XV - FISCAL YEAR

Section 1. The Association's fiscal year shall be the calendar year.

ARTICLE XVI - RULES OF ORDER

Section 1. Robert's Rules of Order, latest edition, shall be recognized as the authority governing the meetings of the A.O.R., its Board of Directors, and committees, in all instances wherein its provisions do not conflict with the California Corporations Code or these Bylaws.

ARTICLE XVII - AMENDMENTS

Section 1. Amendment Upon Majority Vote of Membership. These Bylaws may be amended by a majority vote of the members present and qualified to vote at any meeting at which a quorum is present, provided the substance of such proposed amendment or amendments shall be plainly stated in the call for the meeting, except that the Board of Directors may, at any regular or special meeting of the Board of Directors at which a quorum is present approve amendments to the Bylaws which are mandated by N.A.R. policy.
